

DESTINATION BERTIE

Welcome to Bertie County! Bertie is known as the "Seedbed of the Colony," for its rich agricultural soils, connection to North Carolina's early history, diverse wildlife, and a diverse cultural backgrounds. Explore a former antebellum plantation, now North Carolina Historic Site, Hope Plantation. Bring a packed lunch, for a picnic styled lunch at the plantation. Then enjoy the rest of your day with some sight seeing.

HISTORIC HOPE

EXPLORE ONE OF NORTH CAROLINA'S HISTORIC SITES

 5 HOURS

HISTORIC HOPE

Learn about the history of Native Americans, African Americans and more at the historic plantation. Tour the grounds, see exhibits, enjoy a self guided or a guided tour. For a guided tour inquire inside the visitors center, fees will apply.

WEeping MARY

After the plantation visit, grab a bite to eat at Duck Thru #26. Your pick of chicken, pizza and more. Take your food and stop at Weeping Mary, sit and enjoy lunch with an amazing view of the Roanoke river

MORE INFORMATION:

This itinerary involves walking, especially during the Historic Hope Plantation visit. Please bring a packed lunch as you will enjoy the lunch picnic style at the plantation. Be sure to wear comfortable shoes, clothing and bring water for hydration.

LEWIS HOGGARD// LEWISHOGGARD@GMAIL.COM